Dear Member:

Philadelphia Public Relations Association recognizes dedication and excellence among our members, honoring the best in the business annually by inducting a deserving individual into the PPRA Hall of Fame. Being welcomed into PPRA Hall of Fame is our organization's most prestigious recognition of a public relations professional, celebrating their outstanding contributions to the public relations/communications industry, the community, and PPRA.

Hall of Fame nominees should

- Bring honor, respect, acclaim, and recognition to our industry and our community;
- Excel in public relations and community service;
- Are current, active, and contributing members of PPRA; and,
- Practice PR or communications in Greater Philadelphia.

Previous honorees are a virtual "Who's Who" of Philadelphia public relations professionals, including last year's inductee Bonnie Grant of the Philadelphia Convention & Visitors Bureau. A complete list of Hall of Fame members is available at <https://ppra.net/PPRA-Hall-of-Fame-Inductees>

To nominate a PPRA member for consideration for induction into the Hall of Fame, please complete the attached form and send it, along with supporting materials attesting to the candidate's professional excellence, to either:

- PPRA, P.O. Box 579, Moorestown, NJ 08057
- info@ppra.net

The deadline for all nominations is 5 p.m. on Wednesday, January 16, 2019.

All nominations will be discussed and voted on by current Hall of Fame members. The Board of Governors can support candidate nominations, but we do not vote on them. Nominations cannot be made anonymously. We encourage members making the recommendations to be part of the planning of the Hall of Fame luncheon that will take place in May 2019.

Since 1945, PPRA members have inspired excellence in the practice of public relations. Please take a moment to help us recognize and celebrate an individual that excels in our profession. Thank you on behalf of the Board of Governors for your continued support of PPRA.

Sincerely,

Nina Scimenen
