Come join PPRA's Board of Directors, our past and current Presidents and our Hall of Famers for an after-work mixer in the cozy setting of Rothman Cabin. Please join us for a pay-as-you-go event, an opportunity for new members to meet industry leaders and to make vital connections with PPRA members.

Brûlée Catering manages the full-service bar and food truck, Air Grille, in the pop-up seasonal bar through a partnership with Center City District. The Rothman Institute Ice Skating Rink and Winter Garden are all part of the winter attractions at Dilworth Park through the end of February, so don't miss this event, as it may be your last chance this season! Rothman Cabin has been named "a hot spot" this winter by Philadelphia Style magazine, Time Out Philly and 6abc's Karen Rogers even had an on-air menu tasting with Brûlée Catering's Chef Jean-Marie Lacroix. Enjoy made-to-order bites and adult beverages.

All current, new and prospective members are welcome. If you haven't attended any events this year, now is the best time to mingle. Please register here for admittance to PPRA's special reserved section.

HELP FOSTER URBAN LITERACY: Bring a new or gently used book, and PPRA will donate it to our PProactive partner, Tree House Books. This Philadelphia-based nonprofit provides free access to books and literacy programs to children and their families in low-income neighborhoods.
